Percy Helton, Ivoryton's favorite comedian, will be a member of the regular company from now on. Percy has just finished writing a play, and they say the movies want to buy it for a Jane Withers' film . . . Phyllis Holden, making her debut at this theatre, was a member of the original Broadway production of "Night of January 13th". . . Miriam Dinnet, another newcomer, is taking a vacation from N. Y. radio studios where her operetic work is well known . . . Speaking of singers, Linda Lee, another Milton Stiefel discovery will be along later in the season for a play. Meanwhile you can hear her on the Ripley broadcast any Tuesday . . . And speaking of guest stars, Elissa Landi is scheduled for an Ivoryton appearance in "The Warrior's Husband." . . Edwin Rand once held the one-half mile speed skating record . . . Thirsty? Ice cold lemonade is now being served on the lawn at our new lemonade bar . . . Another scoop for Milton Stiefel! "Brother Rat," George Abbott's famous college comedy which closed in New York just a few weeks ago, will have its very first summer stock showing here next week . . . And John Raby, star of the Biltmore Theatre production, will come to Ivoryton to play the role he created.
